Please join us this month in welcoming guest speaker Linda Reilly. Linda will be discussing an organization called Parent to Parent of PA. Parent to Parent is a free and confidential statewide program that links families of children and adults with disabilities or special needs. They match families for one-on-one telephonic support to share information and resources. There is currently a database of over 1,500 peer supporters.

Linda is the regional coordinator for the South Central Region of Pennsylvania. She lives in Carlisle, PA and has two children. Her son was diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder in 2009. Linda found Parent to Parent to be very helpful when her son was first diagnosed. She is excited to be part of such an amazing organization and looking forward to sharing the many benefits with other families. Light refreshments will be served. No RSVP necessary.

CHANGE: Our meetings are held on the second Thursday of the month January—May and September—November. Child care is provided by at least two professional staff who are experienced with children on the autism spectrum. When possible, children will be separated into two different rooms by age groups. We encourage older children to bring handheld games, books or homework. Autism York will not assume responsibility for any lost or broken devices. If a child exhibits behaviors that are not easily redirected by the staff, parents may be called from the meeting to come help their child.

Autism York is not affiliated with Stewartstown Baptist Church.
