Autism York is excited to announce that we're sponsoring this year's Sensory Awareness Night at the York Revs! Autism York will cover the cost of admission for each person affected by ASD and up to 4 immediate family members to attend this game, for a total of 5 free tickets! Come get your tickets at the Box Office and let them know you're with Autism York. (Each additional ticket is $4.00 per ticket and will be available to purchase at the Box Office.)

The features of this special night include: no cannon fired, limited PA announcements, speakers around the stadium will be at a much lower level, DownTown mascot will only approach children that invite him over, and live action replays by mimes.

While you're there, be sure to stop by the Autism York table. We'll have autism-related information to pick up and look through, we'll have a variety of t-shirts and awareness items for sale, and we'll also have a fabulous Autism York Raffle that you can buy tickets for your chance to win!
