

FAMILY SOCIAL EVENT

BUTTERFLY PRESENTATION & NATURE WALK!

Sunday, August 26, 2018
2:00-4:30 pm

Richard M. Nixon County Park & Nature Center

5922 Nixon Road, York, PA 17403

Come join us for a day of nature and fun at Nixon County Park! Come enjoy a talk and snack while learning about York County's butterflies and the native plant species that support them. Experience the opportunity to tag monarch butterflies as they begin the migration back to Mexico for overwintering.

The day's events also include either a self-guided nature walk around the pond, or a more formally guided hike by a naturalist. Experience the indoor Nature Center on your own after until park close at 4:30pm.

All ages are welcome!

We'll meet out in front of the Nature Center promptly at 2:00pm.

No RSVP necessary. Just come out and enjoy!

Our events have become increasingly popular, please plan accordingly. Unless otherwise noted, there is no limit to the number of guests welcome to attend.

OUR MISSION

The mission of Autism York is to provide support to individuals on the autism spectrum, their parents, families and friends. Our group exists for the sole purpose of providing support in a safe and friendly environment. It is the intention of Autism York as a group to promote understanding and respect of all families and the choices they make regarding therapies and interventions. Through this group we will offer opportunities for families and individuals on the autism spectrum to learn, grow, and develop relationships that help guide one another through this journey.
